INTERNATIONAL GRANTMAKING SYMPOSIUM

AN EDUCATIONAL COLLABORATION BETWEEN

THE CENTER FOR HIGH IMPACT PHILANTHROPY
The University of Pennsylvania

ABOUT THE SYMPOSIUM

The IGS, now in its fifth year, has become the preeminent educational forum for professionals committed to advancing international philanthropy.

To best address this year's focus on philanthropic impact, we are excited to partner with The Center for High Impact Philanthropy at the University of Pennsylvania.

The 2019 IGS will cover topics such as:

- Regulatory Compliant Cross-Border Giving
- Identifying Local Partners
- Validating Foreign Nonprofits
- Philanthropic Impact
- The Closing Space for Civil Society
- New Trends in Philanthropy

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

The Symposium provides a forum for grantmaking professionals, CSR managers, foundation leaders, and corporate executives to gain the most up-to-date information about international philanthropy, while creating a space for debate and discussion about how legal, political, social, and economic developments across the world impact philanthropic giving.
